

Glassware / Thu, 7th November 2019 / Lot 1631

LOT 1631

Five engraved glass rummers, 19th century, including one with a continuous scene of a greyhound chasing a hare, raised on a heavy firing foot, height 13.8cm, one engraved with leaves and berries above an hexagonal waisted stem, height 18cm, and one engraved with fern leaves, height 17.5cm.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1631. Rummer engraved '1863' - bowl rim has likely been reduced to remove a chip, the edges of which can still be seen.

Rummer with hound - small bruise to one tree trunk.

Others with typical wear, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Mon, 4th November 2019 11:30