

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 7th November 2019 / Lot 1485

LOT 1485

A matched pair of Derby porcelain figures, late 18th/early 19th century, modelled as a boy seated on rockwork, a hat full of fruit on his lap, incised 'No. 8' to base, height 12.5cm, and a similar girl on a naturalistic base, holding a floral garland, incised 'No. 36' to base, height 13cm (girl repaired at waist).

Estimate: £30 - £50

Condition Report

1485. Boy - in good condition overall, some typical tiny losses to the applied leaves.

Girl - broken in half at waist and repaired, with associated repaired breaks to floral garland. Crazed. Very minor enamel flaking to green base.

Created: Mon, 4th November 2019 15:48