

Silver and Plate / Wed, 6th November 2019 / Lot 337

LOT 337

An early Victorian silver teapot, decorated with foliate scrolls, the hinged lid with flowerbud finial, London 1839 by Edward, Edward junior, John & William Barnard, height 15.5cm, together with a matching silver two-handled sugar bowl, London 1856 by Edward & John Barnard, height 11cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

337. Teapot has numerous small dents to body and is a bit tired. Good clear hallmarks.

Sugar bowl - good condition but slightly wobbly on its feet, typical light wear. Good clear hallmarks.

Created: Mon, 4th November 2019 16:07