LOT 2156

An 18th century provincial oak rectangular drop-flap dining table, on block legs, height 75cm, length 165cm, depth 101cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

2156. Structurally quite sound with no clear problems with the legs or under-structure. The top is very washed out with some surface cracks and cup marks. The edge of one flap is a little cracked and there is gapping between the planks.
