

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 7th November 2019 / Lot 1455

LOT 1455

A small Worcester porcelain cylindrical King of Prussia mug, circa 1757, the gently waisted body printed in black with a titled half-length portrait of the king opposing Fame, reeded handle, unmarked, height 6.3cm (chip to foot).

Estimate: £50 - £70

Condition Report

1455. Good condition, typical light glaze scuffs and wear. No cracks or repairs. Couple of small nicks to footrim, but no significant damage. Typical light wear to print.

Created: Tue, 5th November 2019 13:18