

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 7th November 2019 / Lot 1229

LOT 1229

An early 20th century Continental gilt metal and enamel bedside timepiece, the circular dial with black Arabic numerals, the carriage-style case of rectangular form with upright handle, decorated with blue enamelled panels within white borders, on ball feet, height 6.6cm, together with a similar gilt metal and peach pink enamelled bedside timepiece, on bun feet, height 5cm (some faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1229. Neither timepiece runs.

Pink clock - chip to top of dome and some blemishes to pink enamel just below the dial. Dial has a hairline crack.

Blue clock - generally good condition with only minor stress hairlines to white borders. Dial in good order.

Created: Tue, 5th November 2019 13:55