

Glassware / Thu, 7th November 2019 / Lot 1622

LOT 1622

An English cameo glass silver mounted salt, circa 1890, probably Webb, the red compressed bulbous body overlaid in white and carved with jasmine flowers and foliage beneath the silver mounted rim, Birmingham 1890 by Horton & Allday, diameter 6cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

---

Condition Report

1622. On close inspection there are three or four pin sized losses to the decoration and surface rubbing to the red ground. Hallmarks are clear. Otherwise in good condition.

Created: Tue, 5th November 2019 16:20