LOT 1420

A good pair of Spode porcelain flower embossed ice pails, covers and liners, circa 1820, the U-shaped bodies relief moulded and painted with floral bouquets and scattered sprigs within gilded rims, flanked by branch handles with fruit and leaf terminals, the liners and covers similarly painted and with branch finials to the covers, red painted factory marks with pattern No. '1918', overall height 26.5cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1420. All components of both pails are in good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration. The gilding to the rims of the liners is a little worn but otherwise the gilding and enamels overall have no wear or losses.
