

Fine British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1431

LOT 1431

A large pair of Meissen porcelain magpies, late 19th/early 20th century, each modelled after Kändler, perched on a tree stump with tail erect, underglaze blue crossed swords and impressed marks to bases, heights 52cm and 53.5cm (both beaks restored).

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

1431. Both with typical losses to the applied foliage and some minor glaze nicks to the base edges. Both with faults, repairs and some losses to the beaks and one tongue. Otherwise overall in good condition.

Created: Mon, 25th November 2019 11:29