

Fine British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1434

LOT 1434

A Sèvres circular dish, the porcelain 18th century, the decoration likely to be early 19th century, painted with a dog attacking a mallard duck protecting its nest on the side of a riverbank, the pink ground rim with gilt overlaid decoration, blue painted and incised marks to base, diameter 25cm, together with a Sèvres style cabinet plate, late 19th century, painted with a portrait of a lady of court within gilt overlaid and floral reserved pink borders, blue painted and gilt printed and painted marks to base, diameter 24cm, and a similar large custard cup and cover, underglaze blue shield mark to base, height 12.5cm (repaired).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1434. Dish - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Some minor rubbing to gilt rim at 3/4 o'clock and minor light surface scratches.

Plate - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Gilding and enamels show no wear.

Pot and Cover - handle broken in 2 places and riveted. Minute nick to top rim edge. Cover badly cracked with glued repair, chips and losses to finial and approx 2cm long narrow chip to inner flange.

Created: Mon, 25th November 2019 11:35