

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1011

LOT 1011

A Chinese famille rose export porcelain teapot and cover, Yongzheng period, the ovoid body enamelled with peonies and rocks above a panelled band of further flowers, height 11cm (finial re-glued and minor chip to spout).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1011. 2.5cm hairline crack to rim and small chip to tip of spout, otherwise body in good condition. Cover has a broken and re-glued finial. Enamels bright and vibrant.

Created: Wed, 27th November 2019 12:59