

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1132

LOT 1132

A Chinese Canton export ivory cribbage board, mid-19th century, the top carved in low relief with a design of lotus and scrolling tendrils framing a row of three central panels, carved in relief with figures, trees and pavilions, flanked by twelve peg hole panels, raised on scroll legs with paw feet, the underside with peg compartment, length 25.4cm.

Estimate: £150 - £200

Condition Report

1132. In good condition. Total weight 170g.

Created: Thu, 28th November 2019 12:08