LOT 1001

A Chinese celadon jade mounted brass rectangular box, 18th century and later, the jade top finely carved and pierced with four sheep and a monkey among the branches of a broad leafed peach tree, the same subject repeated on the engraved hinged lid interior, the sides engraved with twelve further sheep and two monkeys, stamped mark to base, length 8.3cm, height 4.5cm.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

1001. Right-hand deer to lower front of jade panel is missing one hind leg, otherwise in good condition overall. Jade panel is finely carved. Later brass box is crisply engraved, but would benefit from a clean.
