

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1546

LOT 1546

Three Staffordshire pottery figures, late 19th century, comprising Louis Napoleon, Louis Napoleon on horseback and Marshal Arnaud.

Estimate: £30 - £50

Condition Report

1546. Each with typical crazing to glaze.

Napoleon on horseback - Napoleon's head badly broken and restored, including hat and neck. Horses front right leg restored. Otherwise typical enamel flaking.

Napoleon standing - broken and repaired through neck. Varying degrees of enamel flaking, particularly the black affected.

Arnaud - starcrack to reverse of figure amidst crazing. Horses rear right leg restored. Two small chips to right boot. Typical enamel flaking.

Created: Thu, 28th November 2019 12:14