LOT 2563

An early 20th century German terrestrial globe, detailed 'Erd - Globus 10 cent... Berlin, Ludw. Sul. Heymann', held with a bent steel armillary style mount, raised on a turned walnut stem and circular base, inset with a small compass, height 38.5cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

2563. The globe itself has an overall light brown age staining and minor overall scuffs and scratches. The metal frame is nicely made and well patinated, but probably later made to fit the globe. The stem and base has a few minor scuffs and marks.
