LOT 537

An early 19th century cornelian set pendant fob seal of scrolling form, monogram seal engraved, height 3cm, and a 9ct gold mounted bloodstone and cornelian twin sided rotating fob seal, length 3.5cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

537. Cornelian seal – there are two or three small chips to the edge of the seal. The monogram is a bit chipped, probably as a result of past efforts to remove sealing wax. The seal mount is generally a bit worn. Bloodstone rotating fob seal – as a result of wear it is not possible to date the hallmark although the Birmingham anchor is clear, it might be 1878.

Weight 9ct only - 11g.
