

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Friday, 6th December 2019 / Lot 2605

LOT 2605

Franz Xavier Bergman - an early 20th century Austrian cold painted cast bronze model of an eagle with outstretched wings, bearing Bergman amphora vase mark to underside of tail feathers, mounted on a substantial craggy stone base, height 35cm, width 38cm.

Estimate: £700 - £1,000

---

Condition Report

2605. The painted surface is quite good overall but there are some small areas of wear to the edges of the feathers and other high points such as the beak. The tail feather has a small dent and an area of paint loss. Other small flecks of paint loss overall.

Created: Fri, 29th November 2019 12:20