

Glassware / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1617

LOT 1617

An engraved Stourbridge glass decanter and stopper, possibly Stevens & Williams, late 19th/early 20th century, the ovoid body finely engraved with a continuous scene of two herons amidst flowers and foliage, the octagonally faceted neck with banded horizontal detail, the blown stopper with engraved foliate decoration, height 31cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1617. Tiny bruise to one engraved leaf on stopper. Some minor and indistinct surface scratches to widest part of main body. Otherwise ok.

Created: Tue, 31st December 2019 10:11