

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1196

LOT 1196

A Chinese famille rose porcelain footed dish, mark of Jiaqing and probably of the period, of shaped oval outline, the interior painted with a scene of two figures on horseback within a border of butterflies and flowers, the underside with fruiting branches, the foot enamelled with blue and pink key fret border on a lime green ground, iron red and gilt seal mark to base, length 28.5cm (chips to rim).

Estimate: £500 - £700

---

Condition Report

1196. Shallow 2cm x 2cm chip to upper right side of rim. Then a bit further down there is a 5cm section of chipping to the rim. There are two chips to the lower edge of the ring (0.5cm x 2cm and 0.5cm x 1.5cm). Foot in good condition. There are no apparent cracks or restoration. Typical light wear and rubbing to enamels and gilt. Colours are fresh and vibrant.

Created: Mon, 2nd December 2019 11:32