

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1063

LOT 1063

A Chinese Dingyao small circular dish, probably Song dynasty, of shallow circular form, the centre incised with scrolling foliage, covered in a pale greenish grey glaze, beneath an unglazed rim, diameter 11.8cm (glaze hairline), together with a Korean inlaid celadon glazed octagonal bowl, height 4.1cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1063. Dish - small chips and fritting to rim, approx 3cm long vertical haircrack to rim with glaze hairline alongside and small hairline to glaze in centre base of dish alongside small piece of kiln dirt in glaze.

Bowl - heavily crazed, very minor fritting to rim.

Created: Mon, 2nd December 2019 11:44