

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1155

LOT 1155

A Chinese doucai porcelain teapot and cover, mark of Yongzheng but later, the circular body painted with a pair of fenghuang (phoenix) and other birds amidst flowers and vapours, beneath an overhead handle, underglaze blue six-character mark to base, height 16.3cm.

Estimate: £500 - £800

Condition Report

1155. In good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs. Small dark manufacturing blemish to handle at top on one side.

Created: Mon, 2nd December 2019 11:45