

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1497

LOT 1497

A Doulton Lambeth stoneware vase, late 19th century, decorated by Hannah E. Barlow, monogrammed, the tapering body incised with a continuous scene of deer within foliate borders, impressed and incised marks to base, height 20cm (restored).

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

1497. Large vertical crack/break running height of vase with other cracks radiating from it, extensively but professionally restored, including approx 1/2 of neck rim. All only really noticeable by an expert eye.

Created: Mon, 2nd December 2019 12:43