LOT 1199

A group of Chinese provincial blue and white porcelain wares, mostly 17th century, comprising five bowls, two jarlets, a saucer dish and a wine cup (some faults).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1199. Bowl with ducks - 12.4cm diameter. Generally good condition, but some fritting, minor chips and wear to rim. Otherwise no cracks or repairs, typical wear and scratches.

Bowl with flowers - 12cm diameter. Chip to footrim and minor chips/fritting to rim. Typical light wear and surface scratches to glaze.

Bowl with scrolling lotus and tendrils - 11.2cm diameter. 4.5cm hairling crack to rim, typical wear and scratches to glaze. Glaze appears that it might have been from a shipwreck cargo.

Shallow bowl - 16cm diameter. Good condition, no chip, cracks or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear.

Small bowl - 9.7cm diameter. Heavily crazed and scuffs to glaze around rim, otherwise good condition.

Small dish with deer - 10.3cm diameter. Good condition, no significant damage or repairs. Typical light wear and surface scratches.

Small jarlet - Height 7cm. Good condition, typical light surface scuffs to glaze and surface scratches and wear.

Jarlet - height 7.5cm. Good condition, no significant damage or repairs. Some small patches of staining/discolouration to body and all over. Light crazing and typical light surface scratches and wear.

Beaker - height 4.5cm. Good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs. Few very minor glaze blemishes and typical light surface scratches and wear.
