

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1140

LOT 1140

A group of Chinese provincial celadon and white wares, 16th/17th century and later, comprising a celadon stem cup, height 6.9cm, three jarlets, a white ware drum-form box and cover and a white ware bowl (some faults).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

1140. Stem cup - height 6.9cm, approx 3/4 of the rim has been restored and overpainted. Also hairlines apparent behind overpainting. Foot in good condition.

Relief moulded celadon jacket - 7.5cm crack to body, also small crack to rim and typical light surface wear.

Celadon jarlet - height 5.5cm. Generally good condition, no significant damage or repairs. Two tiny chips to foot. Typical wear and scratches to glaze.

Whiteware pot - four small hairlines to rim and few minor chips to rim. Typical surface wear and scratches. Height 5cm.

Whiteware box and cover decorated in relief - diameter 9.2cm. Generally good condition. Small star crack to base. Typical slight surface wear and scratches and light discolouration to glaze.

Bowl - diameter 12.4cm. Crack to body, slight staining to glaze and some crazing, wear and surface scratches.

Created: Wed, 4th December 2019 11:15