

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1552

LOT 1552

A Derby bisque porcelain pastoral fountain group, circa 1780, modelled as a piping shepherd standing over a sleeping maiden, a recumbent sheep at her feet, before a plinth supporting a fountain, raised on a naturalistic base, incised 'No. 12' to base, height 23cm (faults and losses).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1552. Pipe player's arms restored. Small losses to fingers and pipe. Restored left leg. Bocage and urn on pedestal lacking. Restoration to branch and foliage. Losses to fountain, flowers and foliage to base. Chip to lady's left foot. Some typical firing cracks.

Created: Tue, 3rd December 2019 15:42