

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1842

LOT 1842

An Enfield .577 P-56 cavalry carbine, barrel length 51cm, with swivel ramrod and brass nose cap, trigger guard and butt plate, the lock plate struck with crowned 'VR' and '1858 Tower'.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1842. There seems very little wrong with the stock, apart from some usual staining and some very minor wear to edges of stock. Some areas of minor pitting and surface wear to metalware. The lock seems strong and is holding fine in both positions.
