

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2019 / Lot 1564

LOT 1564

A Copeland turquoise ground porcelain vase and cover, second half 19th century, the ovoid body painted with three titled scenes of Rouen, Havre and St. Florent within foliate gilt framing, the cover with cherub finial, green printed mark to base, height 35cm (some faults and losses).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1564. Large portion of base of body missing where it joins the foot, hairline crack to body in this area. Hairline crack to foot. Finial cracked, putti lacking one arm. Surface scratches and some crazing. Body extremely loose and unstable on foot.

Created: Wed, 4th December 2019 11:34