

LOT 2649

A late Victorian carved and painted child's push-along toy horse, the pine base fitted with wooden wheels, height 64cm, width 55cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

2649. Structurally quite sound, but with loss to the paint and gesso surface, particularly around rear legs and tips of ears. Sections of leather bridle are missing and also missing a section of leather braid that continues over the top of the saddle. Surface cracks around the joints of the legs and overall crazing to surface of paint.
