

Jewellery / Tue, 31st December 2019 / Lot 300

LOT 300

An 18ct gold, Burmese ruby and diamond twist-over ring, collet set with a natural Burmese oval cut ruby between two old European brilliant cut diamonds, otherwise set with smaller circular cut diamonds, detailed '18ct', ring size approx M1/2, with accompanying The Gem & Pearl Laboratory report for the ruby, certificate No. 17512, stating it to be 'Natural'.

Estimate: £2,000 - £3,000

Condition Report

300. Generally in good clean condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface wear, scratches and abrasions. Accompanied by a 'Gem & Pearl Laboratory' ruby report stating the oval faceted, mixed cut ruby is a natural ruby with no evidence or heat treatment and measuring 7-8mm x 6-7mm x 2.4mm depth. Weight 3.9g.

Created: Tue, 17th December 2019 15:20