

Silver and Plate / Tue, 31st December 2019 / Lot 26

LOT 26

A Victorian silver mounted pocket corkscrew, the tapering cylindrical screw case forming the handle revealing a folding steel corkscrew, London 1877 by Thomas Johnson II, length of case 8.2cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

26. Generally good condition, typical light surface scratches and wear, but no significant damage or repairs. The two-section handle screws together tightly. The worm hinges and retracts as it should. The worm has its sharp tip in place. Engraved monogram to handle. Good clear hallmarks.

Created: Wed, 18th December 2019 10:52