LOT 44

An Edwardian silver mounted twin inkstand, the rectangular base with two circular inkwells, each with a hinged lid and a wirework pen rest, Birmingham 1910 by William Aitken, length 17cm, together with a silver capstan inkwell, Sheffield 1910 by Walker & Hall, diameter 10.7cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

44. Twin inkstand - overall a bit dented and tired. Resin weighting to the base is disintegrating and some misshaping to edge of base. Numerous small dents. Hinge lids have some dents and do not quite close fully. Engraved inscription to front. Missing liners. Hallmarks are rubbed.

Capstan inkwell - minor dents and general surface wear and scratches. Hinge is good and closes tightly. Good clear hallmarks. Missing liner.
