LOT 78

An Edwardian silver mounted ivory folding conductor's baton, the silver pommel inscribed 'Presented to Mr W.M. Pierce by the Choirs of the Denbigh Deanery... Xmas 1904', London 1903 by Henry Howell & Co Ltd (Jonathan Howell), length 45.6cm, with a matched case.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

78. Baton is in good condition with no chips or cracks to ivory. Silver mounts in good condition with only typical light surface scratches. Good clear hallmarks. Two sections crew together tightly. Box is not original and is a little bit too small as the baton does not fit in by about 0.5cm.
