

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 23rd January 2020 / Lot 1444

LOT 1444

A Royal Copenhagen porcelain figure group Boy with Calves, circa 1963, designed by Thomson, together with two other Royal Copenhagen figures, a dachshund and a pair of doves, a Lladro figure and a cat, two Nao cats and four other Spanish pieces.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1444. Copenhagen girl with cat on knees - impact bruise/starcrack to back of girl.

Spanish figure of kneeling boy and girl - chips/losses to relief flower petals.

Spanish dog on front paws - impact bruise/starcrack to back of dog.

Lladro girl with geese - glued repair to left wrist.

Otherwise all in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Thu, 16th January 2020 12:16