

LOT 1609

23rd January 2020

Glassware / Thu, 23rd January 2020 / Lot 1609

LOT 1609

A Jacobite wine glass, mid-18th century, the rounded funnel bowl engraved with an open rose and a bud on a leafy stem, raised on a plain multi-series airtwist stem and conical foot, height 15.5cm.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

1609. Some minor typical scratches to bowl, edge of foot has 2 minor internal flaws/cracks approx 3mm long and slight roughness to circumference of foot which has possibly been reduced.

Created: Sat, 18th January 2020 10:07