

Glassware / Thu, 23rd January 2020 / Lot 1621

LOT 1621

An engraved double-series opaque twist stem wine glass, circa 1770, the ogee bowl engraved with a leafy stem of flowers opposing a bird in flight, above a plain stem with a pair of spiral threads outside gauze, on a conical foot, height 14cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1621. Indistinct roughness to top rim edge of bowl which includes minute nick - more easily felt than seen - and minute depression where possibly polished. Pinhead sized dig to bowl exterior near rim, foot maybe a little smaller than expected.

Created: Sat, 18th January 2020 10:13