

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 23rd January 2020 / Lot 1511

LOT 1511

A set of six Royal Worcester porcelain plates, fourth quarter 20th century, two painted by Freeman, two by Ayrton, one by Reed and one by Hughes, signed, each with a still life study of fruit within a gilded gadrooned rim, black printed marks to bases, diameter 27cm.

Estimate: £1,200 - £1,800

---

Condition Report

1511. Each plate in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs. All first quality. There are some very minor and light typical surface scratches, only noticeable on close inspection.

Created: Mon, 20th January 2020 10:05