

Glassware / Thu, 23rd January 2020 / Lot 1652

LOT 1652

A Dutch double series opaque twist stem soda wine glass, late 18th century, the bell bowl raised on a stem with four spiral threads outside gauze, on a conical foot, height 15.2cm, together with a small group of ale glasses, including three dwarf ale glasses, each with a wrythen funnel bowl.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

1652. One wrythen funnel ale glass with scratch to base.

One plain funnel ale glass with possible polished footrim, as a little uneven in shape.

Others all appear in generally good condition, minor wear, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Mon, 20th January 2020 15:22