

Glassware / Thu, 23rd January 2020 / Lot 1628

LOT 1628

A large Irish cut glass circular bowl, a matching smaller pair and another smaller single example, circa 1790, each ogee body cut with slices and triangles beneath scalloped and scroll cut rims, raised on faceted and cut bases, diameter of largest 22cm, diameter of pair 15cm, diameter of smaller example 13.2cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1628. Largest bowl - small shallow chip to interior and minor wear to rims.

Smallest bowl - bruise to rim and nibbles.

Other two bowls - large number of chips to rim edge.

Created: Tue, 21st January 2020 10:44