

Glassware / Thu, 23rd January 2020 / Lot 1641

LOT 1641

A gin glass, circa 1730, the bell bowl raised on a shoulder and basal knopped plain stem above the folded conical foot, height 13.5cm (chip to rim), together with a deceptive glass and two other glasses.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

1641. Gin glass - fingernail size flat chip to bowl rim.

Deceptive glass - small scratch t interior of bowl.

Rummer style glass - uneven wear to footrim, possibly been reduced.

Other glass - chip to footrim.

Created: Tue, 21st January 2020 10:48