

Glassware / Thu, 23rd January 2020 / Lot 1658

LOT 1658

A mixed group of glassware, 18th century and later, including a sweetmeat glass with double ogee bowl and scalloped rim, raised on a diamond fluted stem and a domed faceted foot, height 17.4cm, a rinser, engraved with a crest and a running fox, and a pair of faceted candlesticks (faults).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1658. Sweetmeat - a few nibbles to facet edges of rim.

Vase with metal mount - few nibbles to facet edges of rim and clouding to interior.

All others in generally good condition, typical wear.

Created: Tue, 21st January 2020 10:53