

Wristwatches and Pocket Watches / Thu, 23rd January 2020 / Lot 1080

LOT 1080

A Rolex Oyster Perpetual Date GMT-Master II stainless steel and yellow gold cased gentleman's bracelet wristwatch, circa 1993-94, Ref. No. 16713, with signed jewelled movement, the signed black dial with luminous hour markers, Mercedes hands and date aperture and detailed 'Superlative Chronometer officially certified Swiss - T<25', the outer black bezel with Arabic numerals, numbered between the lugs '16713' and 'S 652964', the tapered two-tone link jubilee bracelet numbered '402B', with fold-over clasp, detailed 'Steelinox 62523 H18', case diameter 3.9cm, with Rolex pouch. Provenance: personal watch of the late Brian Barnes (1945-2019), the professional golfer who played in six consecutive Ryder Cups from 1969-1979, famously beating the great Jack Nicklaus twice in one day in singles match play during the 1975 Cup.

Estimate: £4,000 - £6,000

Condition Report

1080. In generally good condition. Small scratch to bezel through the arrow marker, which can be seen in the images on our website. Otherwise typical light wear and surface scratches. Would certainly benefit from a clean. Dial in good clean condition. Glass has a few very minor scratches, only visible under magnification. In working order, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch. No paperwork or box with the watch.

Created: Tue, 21st January 2020 12:35