LOT 1025

A Chinese famille verte porcelain circular dish, probably late Qing dynasty, painted with a dragon and flaming pearl amidst vapours, diameter 34.5cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1025. The dish itself is in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs. Typical light surface scratches. However, the base has had some overpainting but not to cover any damage. We think a possibility might be that it had a late Qing mark on it or even a 'China' mark which has then been erased and then overpainted to hide the erasure.
