

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 20th February 2020 / Lot 1408

LOT 1408

A Royal Doulton figure of Jester, HN1702, designed by C.J. Noke, height 26cm, together with two Parian porcelain spill vases, 19th century, each modelled as a child with a sheaf of wheat, heights 19.5cm and 18.5cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £30 - £50

Condition Report

1408. Jester - one bell on hat re-glued and another on back. Some crazing, tiny nick to edge of base. Hairline crack to left arm.

Female figure - a few small chips to rim of basket, otherwise ok.

Male figure - head re-glued, few chips to rim of basket.

Created: Thu, 13th February 2020 14:53