

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 20th February 2020 / Lot 1421

LOT 1421

An extensive Paris porcelain part dinner service, mid-19th century, painted with floral sprays within yellow and gilt borders, including five graduated octagonal platters, four tureens and three covers, two shell shaped sauce boats and various plates (some faults).

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

1421. 12 soup plates - 2 cracked.

11 dinner plates - 3 chipped, 1 cracked.

19 side plates - 4 cracked, 4 chipped.

4 tureens, 3 covers - 1 tureen with chips to base, 3 tureens ok, covers ok.

2 comports - 1 cracked.

1 large sauce boat - ok.

2 shell-shaped sauce boats - ok.

3 shell-shaped serving dishes (large) - ok.

2 shell-shaped serving dishes (small) - ok.

Sauce tureen with integral stand - ok, staining to lid.

5 graduated platters - smallest with repaired chip to edge, another larger is chipped to base, others ok.

Heavy wear and losses to gilt rims overall.

Created: Tue, 11th February 2020 16:26