LOT 1150

A Chinese famille rose ruby sgraffito ground porcelain bowl, mark of Qianlong and possibly of the period, the exterior painted with four white lotus flowers between four smaller lotus flowerheads, all on polychrome scrolling stems, reserved against a ruby ground incised with scrolling leafy tendrils, the interior finely enamelled with a peach branch, pomegranate and Buddha's hand citron, diameter 12.1cm, height 5.2cm.

Estimate: £1,500 - £2,500

Condition Report

1150. In good condition overall with no chips, cracks or repairs. The four larger white lotus to the exterior have some light surface wear/degradation with some very fine crazing only noticeable on closer inspection. The four smaller lotus have similar fine crazing and some tiny flaked losses to the enamels when viewed closely. The pomegranate decoration to the base interior of the bowl has a couple of minor (probably manufacturing) blemishes to two of the fruits.
