LOT 1030

A Chinese blue and white porcelain 'dragon' saucer dish, mark of Qianlong and possibly of the period, the centre painted with a five-clawed dragon writhing above crashing waves, the exterior with a continuous border of further dragons and waves, underglaze blue seal mark to base, diameter 17.9cm (glaze fritting/minor chips to rim).

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

1030. Generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs but there are numerous areas of fritting/small chips to the glaze of rim. No cracks or restoration. Porcelain is a little dirty with some black spots (spit-out) in the glaze occurring during firing. Very small 2mm firing crack to footrim but of no real significance.
