LOT 1244

A large Chinese carved hardwood figure group of Shoulao and a boy acolyte, seated on the back of a deer with crane beside, early 20th century, the standing god modelled with a gnarled staff and peach branch, height 69.5cm (top of staff drilled for light fitting).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

1244. Generally fairly sound condition, but there is some obvious damage. There is a shrinkage split to Shoulao's right wrist and flower stem. Otherwise typical light nicks, knocks and chips. Top of his staff has drilled holes where it would have had light/lamp fittings.
