

Jewellery / Wed, 19th February 2020 / Lot 550

LOT 550

A Victorian gold and diamond pendant brooch in a floral and scroll design, mounted with circular and rose cut diamonds with a detachable diamond set suspension and a detachable brooch fitting, unmarked, length including suspension 4.8cm, with a case.

Estimate: £1,200 - £1,800

---

Condition Report

550. Gold backed and silver set, probably of Continental/European manufacture, last quarter of the 19th century. There is some variation of colour to the diamonds and some of the diamonds are drawing colour. There is wear to the top suspension loop. The screw in brooch fitting has a lead solder repair and is bent over and distorted. Weight 9g.

Created: Thu, 13th February 2020 10:10