

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 20th February 2020 / Lot 1460

LOT 1460

An Ambrose Bevington porcelain part dessert service, circa 1874, painted with flowers, ferns and foliage within gilt rims decorated with turquoise ribbon detail, comprising eleven plates, two comports and two tazzas (faults).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

Plates - one cracked, one heavily crazed but ok, rest generally in good order with typical light surface wear/scratches but minimal losses/wear to enamels and gilding.

Comports - one generally ok with slightly more wear to gilding and enamels. Other has detached foot but the foot is present although crazed with light staining - has surface wear and scratches.

Tazzas - both feet detached but present with some crazing. One has faint hairline to rim and both have minimal wear to gilding and enamels.

Created: Thu, 13th February 2020 12:14