

Silver and Plate / Wed, 19th February 2020 / Lot 341

LOT 341

A George III silver circular card salver, raised on scroll feet, London 1802 by William Bennett, diameter 17.5cm, together with an Irish silver wine funnel, Dublin 1811 by KN, height 14.5cm.

Estimate: £120 - £180

---

Condition Report

341. Funnel - missing its strainer, overall wear, scratches and numerous small dents. Marks are rubbed. Spout end is trimmed and bent. Bowl is engraved 'Principal Cork Knott'.

Salver - general a bit tired and worn, few small dents, typical surface scratches. Good clear hallmarks. Sits flat, but the centre has been patched to get rid of crest etc.

Total weight 357g.

Created: Thu, 13th February 2020 16:16